Husband's Notes

John Frank Ahles was born on the Rockville farm that originally was homesteaded by his grandparents, John Ahles and Lucy Bauer. He did not like the farming occupation, so, as a young man he worked at the Rockville Grain Mill. Later, he attended the St. Cloud Business College along with his sister Laura Ahles.

Mary Helen Rooney, his future wife, also attended the Business College at that time and, after her graduation took a clerical job at the Paynesville Hospital in central MN. John and Mary were married in Padua, MN on 11 Jun 1929.

After graduation, John worked for the Grundman's Auto Dealer in St. Cloud. Later, he became the bookkeeper for the Texaco Bulk Plant on old Highway 10 in East St. Cloud. In 1951, due to diabetes, John developed poor circulation in his legs that caused gangrene and resulted in the amputation of one leg. John died in 1967 at the age of 65 years.

Wife's Notes

Mary Helen Rooney was born to William Edward Rooney and Helena Riedel on their farm in Raymond town ship, in western Stearns county of MN, that was originally homesteaded by her grandparents, John Rooney and Mary McCool. Mary's Irish ancestors migrated to Canada around 1840 and later relocated to western Stearns County, Minnesota about thirty years, later.

After her marriage to John F Ahles in 1929, she gave birth and raised six children in St. Cloud, MN. Later, about 1950, she worked as a bakery helper at Lakeland Bakery in East St. Cloud. Mary lived until 1996, to the age of 90 years.
